Smashing through the Piker line at will and circling the ends for big gains behind good interference, the Missouri football team made an auspicious start of their 1916 conference season by defeating the Washington eleven by a score of 13 to 0. But for the stiffened Piker defense inside their own ten-yard line and the all-too-frequent Missouri penalties four touchdowns instead of two would have been scored. Missouri's 24 first downs to Washington's 2 and Missouri's 509 yards gained by rushes to Washington's 28 better expresses the relative strength of the two teams.

Only once did the St. Louis team threaten the Tiger goal line. In the early part of the fourth quarter Kier caught a forward pass and carried the ball to within twenty-five yards of the Tiger goal. The Missouri defense tightened, however, and two line plays and two attempts to gain by the aerial route brought the Pikers no results.

Tigers Use Three Sets of Backs.

Schulte used three sets of backs, and all of them showed Coach Edmunds' team something in the way of running interference and picking out holes in the line. Collins, Haines and Rider started the game for Missouri and had little difficulty in gaining the length of the field twice during the first half. Rider was easily the star of his trio, hitting the line for good gains and running the ends of furnishing interference for the others with equal skill. Three times these men worked the ball down to the Piker ten-yard line before Stankowski went across the line for the first touchdown just at the start of the second quarter.

In the second half Pittam and McMillan worked with Rider and Stankowski, and their success was, if anything, more brilliant. This backfield also had trouble putting over the final punch, putting the pigskin inside the danger line three different times before the shifty little quarterback, sticking close to Hamilton, shoved the ball across the Washington goal.

Pittam showed better in running the ends than last year and also seemed to fit better into the team play. McMillan was even scrappier than usual and made some nice gains through tackle and around the end. Rutledge, who went in for Pittam in the fourth quarter, plunged through tackle for good gains.

Pikers Fail to Make Gains.

The Washington backfield had little chance to show its ground-gaining ability and did little the few times the Pikers had possession of the ball. Outside of the one successful forward pass and two-yard run by the much-touted Pemberton, the Piker offense was futile. The men could not get started, and their interference was much inferior to that of Missouri.

The greatest difference was in the ability of the opposing lines. On almost every play the Piker line would be forced back a few yards and a Tiger would shoot through for a big gain. In offensive, the Piker runner would rebound for a loss. The work of Hamilton and Van Dyne showed up but the team work of the whole line was the outstanding feature. Giltner and Wilder showed equally well at wing positions; each grabbed a forward pass and stopped Piker runners easily. Shanley and Dawson outpitted Pittam, Haines and Wilder. Washington men booted 14 times for 425 yards and the Missouri trio kicked 7 times for 208 yards. The Tigers lost 110 yards by penalties to the Pikers' 25. One of the two Piker forward passes was successful, while the Tigers completed only two out of eight attempts.

Edmunds "Hands It to" Tigers.

Coach Edmunds of Washington frankly acknowledged after the game that the Tigers outplayed his team at every point. "The line and the interference were great," he said. "This is the best Missouri team I have ever seen, and I have watched them for the last four years."

H. F. Schulte of Missouri was more than pleased with the improved showing of his team. He explained the frequent penalties by saying that any team running the ends was likely to make a few illegal plays.

WILL PROPOSE NEW JAIL PLANS

Welfare Conference Speakers to Include Warden Tyman of Colorado.

"One of the direct results of the State Conference on Social Welfare that will affect Columbia when this body meets here November 26-28 will be the renewal of the question of a new jail for Boone County. This question has been brought up several times and the citizens are becoming complacent. This time several widely known workers will present their views of local conditions and propose plans of improvement," said J. L. Wagner, secretary of the State Board of Charities and Correction, yesterday. Mr. Wagner said that he expected at least three hundred social workers from all parts of the state, and several of national fame. He has letters from a number of famous social workers, among whom are Warden Tyman of Colorado prison, who has done almost as much for reform as Thomas Mott Osborne of Sing Sing, Dr. William S. Snow, national secretary of the Social Hygiene Association, Fred Almy, president National Conference of Charities and Corrections, saying that they expect to be here to deliver addresses.

T. R. SPEAKS AGAIN FOR HUGHES

Pennsylvania Crowds Greet Colonel in Tour From New York.

By United Press.
WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 14.—In his third speech for Hughes, Theodore Roosevelt called the Adamson Law a subordination of political duty to political profit and deeply prejudicial to the real and permanent interests of laboring men. The trip from New York was typically Rooseveltian. As the crowd cheered he shook hands from the rear platform with many at Newark, Easton, Wilkesbarre and Allentown. Sixty thousand persons turned out to hear his speech on the eight-hour bill, Mexico and the tariff. He dwelt only slightly on his own settlement of the anthracite strike fourteen years ago.

FIRST GUN IS FIRED IN UNION CAMPAIGN

Student-Alumni Organization Holds Smoker—Committee of 100 Named.

H. H. KINYON PLEASED

Secretary Satisfied at the Results—To Ask for a Women's Building.

Somewhere in Columbia the first Krupp was fired Friday night in the Student-Alumni Union campaign in the shape of a smoker at the new Union Building, the headquarters recently vacated by the Columbia Club. When the smoke of the cigars, jokes and talks cleared away, the results loomed up favorably. A fighting force of 100 sturdy grenadiers was appointed to lead the charge for new members.

General H. H. Kinyon of the Union said that he was highly pleased at the results of the first pitched battle and predicted that the students especially would get behind the guns as soon as they were made acquainted with the plan. A new charge will be led Monday. Faculty members and alumni will also be recruited.

"I see no reason why the idea should not be readily accepted by the students," said General Kinyon, "for our fortifications furnish the only common ground where the engineer, the lawyer, the journalist and the medic can meet as student to student, and where the faculty man can cast aside his classroom dignity and be as one with everybody. Michigan has done this, and it is a success there. Why should it not succeed here?"

The plans of the Union include a $250,000 building. The building is to be a three-story structure of native Missouri limestone, of which the new buildings of the University are built. It will be 250 by 150 feet. On the first floor there will be a lounging room for men, 80 by 36 feet, between the two front entrances. On either side of this room will be a lounging room for women and committee rooms. Immediately behind the main lounging room there will be a general lobby, 80 by 20 feet, and the offices of the Union. On the second floor there will be a billiard room, rest rooms for women and a general reading room. A large auditorium seating 400 will be also on this floor. On the third floor will be rest rooms for women and dormitories where about fifty cots can be placed for visiting alumni.

This building is intended to take care of the women of the Union only temporarily, as the next Legislature will be asked for an appropriation for the erection of a woman's building. If it is obtained the departments for women in this building will be used for other purposes.

SEMI-ANNUAL TRADE WEEK IS FAVORED

Leading Merchants Express Desire to Make Refund Period Regular Event.

RESULTS ARE GOOD

Purchases Range From $36.25 to $2.50—One Store Draws 30 Shoppers.

With the close of Columbia's first Trade Week last evening, leading merchants in the various lines of business represented in the rebate plan expressed themselves as pleased with the results and ready to join in making Trade Week an annual or semi-annual event.

"It is a plan as good, if not better, to have a Trade Week in the fall and spring of each year instead of making it only an annual affair," said A. Fredendall of Fredendall's Department Store. "I am well pleased with the results Trade Week has brought me. It is a good means of advertising among the shoppers in other towns and has proved satisfactory." Thirty-out-of-town shoppers visited the store during the week.

"You can count on me on a semi-annual Trade Week," was the way Isadore Barth of the Victor Barth Clothing Company expressed his satisfaction in the results. "I have had customers in this week who have not shopped in Columbia for years."

"The Trade Week plan is a good one, and I think it can be made a more successful advertising feature in out-of-town trade each year it takes place," said H. B. Goetz of the Goetz-Lindsey Jewelry Store. The Will E. Smith Dry Goods Store stands ready to join in making Trade Week a semi-annual affair, according to Mr. Smith.

"The merchants of Columbia tried co-operative advertising in surrounding towns several years ago on their own initiative," said T. M. Maughs of the Sykes & Broadhead Clothing Company. "I think co-operation between the merchants and a newspaper is a much better method, and favor the plan as a means of out-of-town advertising."

Up to 6 o'clock last evening slips showing purchases of more than $1,000 worth of merchandise had been turned in at the Missourian. Reports from merchants later in the evening showed that many slips had not yet been turned in. The slips showed total purchases by one person ranging from $36.25 to $2.50.

LIBRARIANS ARE PLEASED

Resolutions Adopted Expressing Congratulations to Columbians.

The Missouri Library Association at the close of its seventeenth annual conference drew up a set of resolutions in appreciation of the welcome extended by citizens, the Columbia Library Club, H. O. Severance and his assistants at the University Library.

Addresses by Dean W. W. Charters, Dean F. B. Mumford and Prof. J. B. Powell, and courtesies of the Commercial Club and the Columbia press were especially mentioned. Appreciation of the music by Miss Ross and Miss Husband, and by Director Venable and his orchestra, was expressed. The entertainment committee and the president of the association were congratulated upon their services. The decorative work of Prof. H. F. Major was also commended.

Visiting librarians forgot their dignity and grinned widely, vied with each other in whistling, struggled with the weight of paper plates and attempted the feat of the seven-league boots at the indoor field meet which the Library Club arranged for the visitors to the state meeting Friday night. The original plans included a picnic at Rollins Spring Friday evening, but uncertainties of the weather led to the meeting at the library instead. After the meet, a strenuous football game between librarians and assistant librarians was played. Members of the Library Club served a picnic lunch.

STUDENTS KNOCK DOWN SIGNS

Rooters in Shirliff Parade "Peewed" When Refused Entrance to Theater.

Because they were denied entrance to the Hall Theater last night students in the shirliff parade, on their return from the Columbia Theater at about 10 o'clock, kicked over the sign boards at the Hall. One of the policemen stationed to watch the theater called to the boys to stop and fired his revolver in the air as a threat—but the boys kept on running. On one was arrested.

Public display of rain-soaked pajamas and night shirts was in style last night for the first time this year. More than two hundred excited students celebrated the football victory over Washington University.

Right of U-Boats to Operate Off U. S. Coast Upheld in Berlin Dispatches.

By United Press.
BERLIN, Oct. 14.—Nineteen fresh Anglo-French divisions, about 1,625,000 men, have been put out of commission in three months and a half of the Somme offensive, the semi-official news bureau asserted today. These divisions were withdrawn and disappeared completely from the battle front.

Since the beginning of the Somme offensive 178 divisions, partly new and partly filled up, have been launched against the German positions, the military critic said.

Russian losses from June 1 to October 1 are estimated at 1,000,000, quoting the statement of a Kiev officer in a Swiss paper of authority. Some Siberian regiments were annihilated, he asserted, and the Fourth Siberian Army Corps alone lost between 12,000 and 14,000 men from August 31 to September 3.

U-Boat Rights Near U. S. Upheld.

By United Press.
BERLIN, Oct. 14.—The right of a German submarine to operate off the American coast as long as American territorial rights are respected and pledges to the United States government are upheld was claimed in an authoritative statement issued through the semi-official news bureau tonight. It was denied that such operations constitute a blockade and it was further stated that "no sensible American citizen will believe that a secret depot for supplying submarines could be established on the American coast." It was pointed out that British cruisers "approach the coast of New York so close that they can be seen with the naked eye from the roofs of buildings."

Dog-Tax Delinquents To Be Fined.

The payment of the annual dog tax has been slow this year. Only sixty-nine taxes have been issued up to date, which is nearly one hundred less than at the same time last year. The law allows the first fifteen days of October for the payment of the annual tax, and after that date a fine of $9.75 in addition to the license fee will be assessed. City Collector B. W. Jacobs stated that action in accordance with the law will be taken during this week.
